

2010/2011 STUDENT FELLOWSHIP COMPETITION INFORMATION AND DEADLINES

OFFICE OF ACADEMIC DEAN

JUNIOR Fellowship Competition

There are five junior fellowships:

- The Frieda Fehrenbacher Fellowship ($3,000); and the Sis Grenald International Travel Fellowship ($2,500); and the Emily Sartain Fellowship ($2,000) are designated for international travel.
- The Sarah Peter Fellowship ($1,500) and the Harriet Sartain Fellowship ($1,250) are not restricted, but proposals for travel are encouraged.
- An application includes a written proposal (not to exceed 5 pages) and no more than ten pieces of work to be exhibited at the Fellowship show.

BFA juniors who know that they have or think they will have a 3.0 cumulative gpa including Fall 2010 and have completed a minimum of two semesters at Moore are eligible to apply for a fellowship. Students will need to inform their department Chair of their interest no later than Friday, December 10 (last day of classes).

The Department Chair will coordinate the review of student work within the department and select the students the department is recommending for the fellowship competition and will inform the Academic Dean no later than Friday, December 17.

After cumulative gpa's are calculated including FA10 grades, students who are eligible for the competition will be notified by a posting on Sign Centrals no later than Friday, January 21. Applications for those students will be available starting January 24 in the Academic Dean's office, Wilson Hall, 3rd Floor. Preliminary Proposals are due in the Academic Dean's office no later than Friday, February 11 at 5:00 p.m. Final proposals are due in the Academic Dean's office no later than Friday, February 25 at 5:00 p.m.
