This exclusive program is offered by Moore College of Art & Design in collaboration with The College of Global Studies at Arcadia University.

- A three-week, three-credit course with the city of London as your classroom.
- Seminars which invoke aspects of visual culture, geography, literature and architecture on an unprecedented metropolitan scale.
- Coursework “maps” particular sections of the city through intensive classroom and field study, bringing London to life in a fresh and innovative way.
- Moore College of Art & Design students will receive an Arcadia University transcript. Credit earned on the program will count towards your undergraduate degree at Moore College of Art & Design.
- Arcadia’s experienced, knowledgeable staff offer complete student support in both the U.S. and London.
